“What I like best about the ASCV is just getting to know everyone that’s part of the organization and know you're not alone here. It’s great to meet other like-minded people on the spectrum and feeling a sense of belonging. We have a lot to offer no matter how old you are. It’s a great way to meet like-minded people and learn social skills if needed.”

-ASCV Self-Advocate

“It is so great getting our son in a social setting where he can truly be himself. There are very few things that he seems to enjoy these days, especially as a teen. The diverse range of activities and facilitators really seem to keep him engaged and excited to come back each time. Thank you to ASCV for putting this together! We can’t wait for more experiences like this.”
